

Dear All,

I trust this newsletter finds you well and that you have been able to find time to enjoy the beautiful weather we've been having?

Despite the relaxation in restrictions regarding our movements, there is no sign as yet that we will be able to come together physically to worship any time soon. However the National Church has issued guidance to help prepare for the re-opening of the buildings. I will be looking at this with the churchwardens over the next couple of weeks.

The Financial Statement has now been signed off by Nik and as soon as this has been returned I will be arranging for a PCC Meeting to approve it and the APCM reports. This will mean we will be ready to hold our APCM as soon as we are allowed to meet together.

Reminder that if Zoom fails on a Sunday morning the back up is as follows:

We will try to get Zoom up and running until 10:45am. If it is not working by this time, the service will move across to Facebook live at 11:00am and will become a said service, with the service leader (and anyone else in their household) doing readings and prayers. The sermon will come at the end of the service, and there will be a couple of minutes delay as the service leader ends the service and the preacher starts streaming.

Sunday at 6pm via Zoom, A service led by St Augustine's with informal coffee beforehand from 5:30pm. Email howard_green@btinternet.com for joining instructions.

If you need to contact me, please can you phone between 4:30 and 5:30pm when I will guarantee to be in and not ringing anyone else, or alternatively email me anytime on sarah.quantrill@cantab.net I check my emails each morning.

Day Off

Just a reminder that I have moved my rest day to a Friday. This is to allow Richard to continue to lead our Compline service each week, as he has a study evening on a Tuesday.

Thank you for all you are doing to support and encourage one another and your communities during this time.

Yours in Christ

Sarah
